

The Library at Grand Lodge

GRAND LODGE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA AND YUKON

The Library at Grand Lodge is composed of our general collection, archives, reference texts and the Francis J. Burd Collection.

This booklet describes our catalogue system and details the index used, as well as includes a floorplan.

The library is operated as a reading room and research library; not a lending library, although district and lodge education officers may borrow books from the general collection for up to three weeks. The sign-out ledger is located behind the librarian's desk.

The library can be accessed during regular business hours by enquiring at the Grand Secretary's Office. The curator is on site from 5:00 to 10:00 pm on the second and fourth Fridays of each month, July and August excepted.
